

The Amraqiyyah Canon

The Three-Tier Scriptural and Doctrinal Foundation — Version 1.1

Instrument 3 of 3 — Al-Tariqa Amraqiyyah · Document 4 of 5

Preamble — The Lineage of the Canon

The Canon's structure follows the Afroasiatic sacred lineage: Mdw Ntr — the sacred script of ancient Kemet — is the root of the tree that produced every scriptural language this Canon holds. Through Hieratic, Proto-Sinaitic, Phoenician, and Aramaic, three sister languages descend — Arabic, Hebrew, and Ge'ez — with Coptic as the cousin who stayed home, the direct descendant of ancient Egyptian itself. This is why the Ethiopic and Coptic Biblical canons hold primary place among the Biblical traditions: they are the closest living textual links to the Kemetic root. The syncretic canon is the means of expressing, expanding upon, and optimizing that root through every tradition that received its inheritance.

The Canon ratifies the standard Tirmidhi enumeration of the 99 Names of Allah as the Way's canonical list (see The 99 Names Registry).

PRIMARY CANON

Supreme doctrinal authority. Held in their revealed languages. Quran is absolute authority over all.

Tier I-A — Supreme Revelation: Al-Quran al-Karim — Arabic (Fusha); supreme authority without qualification Tier I-B — Prophetic Scripture: Al-Zabur (The Psalms of Dawud) — divine scripture confirmed in Quran 4:163, 17:55, 21:105; subordinate to Quran, superior to all secondary canon

SECONDARY CANON

Revealed, inspired, or discovered wisdom. Translated into Arabiyah al-Amraqiyyah. Consulted through the Quran and Zabur as interpretive filter.

Tier II-A — The Cosmological Foundation (Pythagorean-Mathematical): Plato: Timaeus · Plato: Republic VI–VII · Iamblichus: De Vita Pythagorica · Iamblichus: Theologoumena Arithmeticae · Nicomachus: Introductio Arithmetica · Philolaus: Fragments · Archytas: Fragments · Porphyry: Life of Pythagoras · Aurea Carmina (The Golden Verses)

Tier II-B — The Confucian-Taoist Foundation: I Ching (Yijing) · Tao Te Ching · Analects · Daxue · Zhongyong

Tier II-C — The Buddhist Foundation: Dhammapada — contributed through the Zen-Bushido bridge; not imported as standalone doctrine

Tier II-D — The Nazarene Foundation: Complete Ethiopic Bible (incl. 1 Enoch, Jubilees) · Complete Coptic Bible · Apocryphon of John · Gospel of Thomas · Gospel of Barnabas · Asclepius

Tier II-E — The Zoroastrian Foundation: Gathas of Zarathustra — the 17 hymns only; the prophet's voice preserved, the Avestan priestly elaboration explicitly refused

Tier II-F — The Bushido Foundation (Futuwwa): Musashi: Go Rin No Sho · Musashi: Dokkodo · Musashi: Hyoho Sanjugo Kajo · Yagyu Munenori: Heihō Kadensho — Family Traditions on the Art of War (The Life-Giving Sword) · Chozanshi: Tengu Geijutsuron · Chozanshi: Neko no Myojutsu

TERTIARY CANON

Legal, scholarly, and rational elaboration. Never doctrinal override.

Tier III-A — Ibadhi Fiqh and Hadith: Musnad al-Rabi' ibn Habib · Diwan al-Ashyakh · Al-Mudawwana al-Kubra (Ibadhi) · Kitab al-Nil (Al-Thamini) · Al-Iqd al-Jawhari (Al-Salimi)

Tier III-B — Maliki Fiqh and Hadith: Al-Muwatta · Al-Mudawwana al-Kubra (Sahnun) · Mukhtasar Khalil · Risala (Ibn Abi Zayd)

Tier III-C — Sufi Metaphysics and Ethics: Ihya Ulum al-Din (Al-Ghazali) · Al-Futuh al-Makkiyya (Ibn Arabi) · Fusus al-Hikam (Ibn Arabi) · Minhaj al-Abidin (Al-Ghazali) · Mishkat al-Anwar (Al-Ghazali)

Tier III-D — Rational Theology and Natural Philosophy: Works of the Mu'tazila (al-Zamakhshari, Abd al-Jabbar, al-Jahiz) · Thomas Paine: African Slavery in America (1775) — the argument against slavery from first principles, preceding even Common Sense · Thomas Paine: Common Sense · Thomas Paine: Rights of Man · Thomas Paine: The Age of Reason

Canon Hierarchy in Conflict Resolution

1. Quran — resolves all conflicts absolutely
 2. Zabur — resolves conflicts within secondary canon
 3. Tier II — consulted by tradition register; the Quran and Zabur are the filter
 4. Tier III — elaborates practice, never overrides
 5. If translation introduces ambiguity, the source language is authoritative
