The Platonic Keys

Cards 11–15 · drawn first in every reading, never suspended

The Key answers a question independent of the sky's condition: what is the elemental nature of the question the seeker has brought?

Exactly Three Checks

A line moves only when a clock says so. The lunar day names a line by its five-day bin; the Sevenfold Weave speaks only when the hour's ruler and the mansion's ruler are one planet; the season names a line by its day. There is no fourth check, and there never will be.

When two clocks converge on one line, the reading is sealed — Solar, Sevenfold, or Triple — and that line carries the weight of the whole.

انْفُخُوا فِي رَأْسِ الشَّهْرِ بِالْبُوقِ

"Blow the trumpet at the new moon..." — Psalm 81:3, the Appendix C coordinate

Check 1 (lunar day 17) → Line 4

Check 2 (Weave, Mars = Mars) → Line 3

Check 3 (season day 40) → Line 3

⇒ Sevenfold Seal on Line 3
